Instructional Designer / Elearning Developer

With extensive experience as an eLearning Developer/Instructional Designer, I've developed a wide range of courses for blended and self-paced learning, reaching learners across the globe. Applying the ADDIE model, I collaborate closely with SMEs to produce engaging and pertinent content. Proficient in e-learning and video editing tools such as Articulate Rise, Storyline360, and Camtasia, I ensure smooth execution aligned with organizational objectives. My expertise is beneficial for organizations that prioritize employee development and growth.
